Huntsman Tells Of Wild Chase

Arnstein Trailed by Lawyer

Nothing Revealed About Assets

Nothing was brought out at the examination that would tend to locate the assets for which the National Surety Company is looking.

When McGee left the stand he asked Mr. Myers if his examination had been completed so far as he was concerned.

"I should say not." was the reply.
"I've got about 5,000 more questions I want to ask you. We will recall you at 9:30 Saturday morning."

In answer to questions as to how he had come to make the trip with the four detectives, McGee said: "It was after a talk with Assistant District Attorney Dooling. I went to his office on the night of February 27 with Mr. Fallon. Mr. Dooling asked me where Arnstein was and I said that I did not know. I said, however, that by being at a certain place at a certain time I could get in touch with him. I did not want to make the trip, as I did not want to place Arnstein in a position.

Hotel. While there I communicated with Fallon in New York.

"While in Rittshurgh a Mr. Sterm called on me and through him I received a letter from Arnstein in which he said he would not come in until ball had been arranged." Mr. McGee produced the letter at this point and it was read into the record. It said in part: "I will not come back until ball has been fixed. I am innocent of this crime. It is the biggest joke I ever heard of. I do not intend to lie in jail until ball is fixed."

The lawyer said he had never seen Stern before and when shown a rogues' gallery photograph of Nick Cohen and that he was not the man.

"I had several telephone calls from Stern while I was in Pittsburgh" continued McGee, "and he finally told me to go to the Hotel Rochester, in Rochester, where Arnstein would surrender. "When I met Arnstein in Cleveland on February 23 I advised him to give himself up. He said then that he would not come back until bail had been arranged. He said he didn't want to be 'planted' by the Surety Company. He asked me to have his brother and Miss Brice's mother and her two brothers sleep in their home so that the Surety Company could not 'plant' her. He also told me that $25,000 was all the bail he could give and that it was enough.

GOD LOVES THE IRISH

By HUMPHREY J. DESMOND, LL.D.

With a strong Foreword by Joseph I. C. Clarke, President-General of the American-Irish Historical Society, and a really delightful Appreciation

by Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, our Minister to Denmark.

"The Sun," "The Tribune" and "The Exening Post" are foremost authorities on literature. All three praise Mr. Desmond's book in a key high as a Melba note, but at length too great to quote here. The Editor of "The Sun" was so impressed with the "charm" of WHY GOD LOVES THE IRISH that he gave it an entire front page of praise. A copy of this review will be sent on request.

NOTE:- The demand for "WHY GOD LOVES THE IRISH" obliged us to rush a second large edition before the first was off the press. We were swamped with orders, but unable to supply a single copy. A fourth large edition is now ready, but it would be prudent to order promptly.
